The second heat was declared by the judges a dead heat the time, 2:07 1-4, displacing the world's record set in 1904 in the Brighton Beach track, N. Y., when Sweet Marie and Aristo raced a dead heat in 2:08 1-4. The other world's record established was the fastest six heat race, the average time for the six heats being 2:07 1-4, against 2:07 19-24 set at Lexington, Ky., in 1910 in a race won by Spanish Queen. All three events on the card proved decided contrasts to the races held the other three days of the week, the contests being fairly fast and close, of light harness racing ever witnessed

All three events on the card proved decided contrasts to the races held the other three days of the week, the contests being fairly fast and close but the Charter Oak event furnished a thrill in every finish, less than half a head separating St. Frisco and Mabel Trask took the first heat in smooth style, but in the second the bay stallion and chestnut mare fought it out on even terms from the turn into the stretch to the wire and the judges could not separate them as they passed the stand.

In the third heat Alma Forbes and Laramie Lad set the pace for the first half mile. St. Frisco and Mabel Trask trailing, breaking into the front on the far turn, but St. Frisco's effort to overcome Mabel Trask's light marsin was not sufficient. In the fourth heat the veteran Reliaman Geers, changed his tactics, going out in the lead and setting the pace and forcing Mabel Trask to catch him he lead and setting the pace and forcing Mabel Trask to catch him before the wire.
